

Explore the original oral histories from the Southern Oral History Program that Caitlyn Swett used to create the soundscape for Culture Mill's Eclipse. Below each interviewee are the keywords or ideas from the interview taken from Caitlyn's notes.

Click on the hyperlinked text below each interviewees name to visit the SOHP's online database where you can listen to oral histories and read transcripts of interviews.

Interviewee Name	Link to SOHP oral history	Caitlyn's notes
Alice Battle	K-0523	gives some directions to bar downtown, also a path through Granville
Walter Durham	K-0540	discusses Northside Elementary and Chapel Hill High School
Henry Foust	N-0036	runs through businesses and restaurants downtown
Joe Herzenberg	K-0196	names 1970s gay bars on franklin and downtown
Sam Holton	K-0206	discusses integrated school board meetings in Northside in the church on W Rosemary, and violence, and then discusses Northside school district
Fran Jackson	K-0208	mention of CHHS on Franklin near swenson's, and CHHS vs. Lincoln High
Karen Parker	N-0046	mentions Carolina Coffee shop
Marsha Warren	U-0798	description of march for civil rights in downtown Chapel Hill
Cecil Wooten	K-0849	description of west franklin street being like "West hollywood" in terms of open gay affection